The subscribers offer for sale the residence of the late William S. Littlejohn. This property is pleasantly located on a large corner lot on Orange and Patterson streets. The lot has a frontage on Orange street of 141-2 feet and 100 feet on Patterson street. The house contains twelve rooms, finished in hard wood, heated with hot air and hot water, and fitted throughout with electric lights. There is also a fine gas range in the kitchen.

There is an exceptionally good granite cellar under the whole building, with cement floor, and contains a wash room fitted with set tubs and gas heater.

"Two Highland Laddies." That's the name of a picture at the Pavilion and it's about the funniest picture we have ever seen. The story deals with two Scotch lads, who join the army. One lad is long, lean and lanky; in fact, he is extraordinary long, etc. The other is short and large of growth. The contrast alone would make an undertaker laugh. Their pranks in the army are extremely funny, until finally they become the pride of the regiment. The picture ends up showing them in a gigantic Scotch parade, which is no doubt a picture of the last Scotch parade held in Montreal. A whole of Scotch bagpipes is one of the features of the parade. A new program of vaudeville comes to-day, both acts being highly recommended.

The Advance Movement in the Retailing of Women's Apparel

The successful merchandiser of Women's Garments is always working away from the commonplace merchandise to be had. One may buy garments from a thousand different houses and still have just garments! Now, "just garments" are not good enough for a good store; and it is the good stores that buy and sell the best products.

We are always looking to woman. If she prefers our merchandise, the rest is easy. But she will not prefer our merchandise unless we can give her the best merchandise possible for the money. We can prosper only as we can satisfy our customers—and you are satisfied when we do.
